Dear Travel Partner,

***** Ticket Quota Update *****

Effective 01 April, 2010 IATA India is implementing a new Ticketing Authority Process, wherein the YY capping from IATA will no longer exist and will be removed and following procedure will be followed,

- 1) Airlines will have to use BSPLINK to provide the ticketing authority to the agents.
  - 2) Airlines will continue to update specific number of ticket limits on Amadeus.
  - 3) Amadeus will update the Travel Agency's ticket limit for that airline provided the necessary authority exists in BSPLINK.
- In order to get capping for first time on an airline, you will have to liaise with the respective airline and step 1, 2 and 3 will be followed.
  - For increase in capping on pre-authorized airlines, step 2 and 3 will be followed.

Therefore, you are requested to contact all your ticketing airlines to ensure they have authorized your agency on BSPLINK, as in the absence of same; Amadeus will not be able to update the ticket limits of that airline in your Ticket Quota Table.

You may contact bomcs@iata.org for any clarifications on the above process.

Happy Ticketing!

Best Regards, Team Amadeus.
