

EU vaccination certificates can now be checked during mobile check-in

On all Lufthansa flights from non-risk countries of the Schengen area, travellers can once again have their boarding pass issued directly on their smartphone when checking in – an additional document check at the airport is no longer necessary. This is made possible by the automatic and digital verification of the scanned QR codes of EU vaccination certificates and Covid-19 test results.

Click here to know more

